Samuel Austin Allibone

The Origin Of Evil:

The Concept of God, the Origin of the World, and the Image of the Human in the World Religions P.

Koslowski,2012-12-06 All religions make statements about God or the Absolute and about the beginning about the beginning of the world and the beginning and nature of the human person Propositions about God the human person and the world statements about God s eternity or process of becoming about the status and nature of the human person as the image of God and about the beginning of the world are woven into religious speculations about the beginning The theology anthropology and cosmology of the world religions determine the image of the human person and the image of the world in the world cultures shaped by the different religions They stand in a tense relationship with the anthropologies and cosmologies of modern science which in turn challenge the religions to deepen their image of the human person With this volume leading thinkers of Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam provide the reader with a first hand source for understanding the five world religions and their teaching about God the human person and the origin of the world

African Origins of Monotheism Gwinyai H.

Muzorewa,2014-10-29 African Origins of Monotheism recasts an African knowledge of God in a new and original way It aims to recapture concepts of God as originally reflected upon by pristine African religious thinkers Muzorewa is seeking after the traditional African understandings of the Divine which trace their origins back before the rise of Judaism Christianity and Islam Monotheism he maintains is the ancient view of God ubiquitous across the continent of Africa indeed monotheism comes out of Africa The book challenges the way that the idea of God has been manipulated by Eurocentric agendas by colonizers enslavers and empire builders all of whom were using God talk to achieve their own personal ends In African thinking the God concept is guided by a sense of the presence of the all pervasive and omnipresent God which has instilled in the people a sense of respect for life at all costs Thus respect is not based on a commandment or on fear but on a propensity for affinity
